Congratulations to the 2022-23 Grant Award Recipients

In 2023, the ACMS Foundation awarded over $250,000 to 16 local non-profit organizations. These grants were provided to organizations whose projects or programs exemplified the mission of the ACMS Foundation, which centers on addressing social determinants of health. We extend our gratitude to these organizations for the impactful work they are undertaking in our region.

- Abiding Missions
- Angels' Place, Inc.
- Beverly's Birthdays
- Blind & Vision Rehabilitation Services of Pittsburgh
- Family House
- Footbridge for Families
- Homeless Children's Education Fund
- Jeremiah's Place
- Light of Life Ministries, Inc.
- North Hills Affordable Housing dba HEARTH
- Ronald McDonald House Charities of Pittsburgh and Morgantown, Inc.
- Roots of Faith (ROF) - Faith United Methodist Church
- Samaritan Counseling Center of Western Pennsylvania
- Storehouse for Teachers dba The Education Partnership
- Strong Women, Strong Girls
- United Methodist Church Union

In addition to the open application process for grant applications, which runs from July to September each year, the ACMS Foundation will issue special grants for new projects.

In March 2023, the ACMS Foundation awarded a special $20,000 grant to Pittsburgh Mercy to support the launch of their Pilot Transportation Program for Children's Partial Hospitalization. The Foundation's Board of Trustees recognizes that the ongoing mental health crisis requires actionable solutions.
